Attendance Policy

Students are required to maintain a minimum attendance percentage of 75 percent.

Attendance is recorded for every scheduled class.

Students with attendance below the required percentage may not be eligible to appear for semester examinations.

Medical or other exceptional circumstances may be considered according to institutional rules.

Students should regularly check their attendance records and contact the appropriate faculty member if they identify an error.

Maintaining regular attendance is the responsibility of every student.