College Attendance Policy

Students are expected to maintain regular attendance throughout the academic semester.

A minimum attendance of 75 percent is required to be eligible to appear for semester examinations.

Students whose attendance falls below the required level may be subject to the academic rules of the institution.

Attendance records are maintained by course instructors and may be reviewed by students through the academic portal.